HARPER'S FERRY, VA., Sunday, May 12, 1861. Editors Louisville Courier :- This "goiden spoke in the wheel of time," as Longfelow poctically terms the Sabbath, has again raturned, and with it the sunniest skies, the most translucent atmosphere, and a the bugle call and the roll of the drum that ever and anon float from the camps of this

We have but little here to vary the me notony of military life. Each day is repetition of its predecessor. The troop are constantly drilling and acquiring a de gree of efficiency that will be eminently serviceable in time of action. Butteries are being planted so as to command the approaches from Maryland, and, if we have out half a chance, any attack can be succesfully resisted. I do not imagine, however, that there will be any invasion of Virginia sell until alter the State votes on the seession ordinance. That will be almost ananimous, save in a few of the Western Abolitionized counties. The times we are having are not so luxurious as those at home, but all bear up ravely and cheerfully. One spirit alon nimates the troops at this post, and that Is resistance to the death. We may possibly be driven away, but not until Harper's erry is a complete ruin and one stone do not those, then, who have taken the shall not he left upon another. As a strategetical point this is of vast importance to Virginia and the Confederate States, and it is not probable that it will be given up without a deadly struggle. The companies from Kentucky have all peen mustered into the service by Captain Carr, of the regular army. The commands of Captains Crossland, Bowman, Harvey, Lapiche, and probably Pope, will act as a batallion under Col. Duncan. Capt. Desha and his men intend serving Independently ind may be attached to some one of the irginia regiments. Owing to pressing family engagements, and in obedience to the imperative call of inty at home, Adjutant Symmes has re signed his position. The Kentuckians part with him with deep regret. His modest and manly virtues, his coldierly qualifiations and his carnest devotion to the ause of Southern independence had endear d him to allhearts. He bears with him the est wishes of the entire command, and should Kentucky ever be engaged in this intestine strife we expect to hear of the name of Symmes as foremost in the fray. not arouse our Legislature to a souse of honor and duty, I ask what, oh, what will do it?

Amid all the bufluences brought to bear in this town on the Legislature, the "states It gats" party have stood firm, planting themselves on the broad platform of justice and equality, and constitutional right. Through all the din and uproar of Union shricking, of all the empty parade of the women's bended knee and tear bespangled petitions, Yaukee Doodles and gulorimas llag appliances, and all the elap-trap howlings of a fretien for a Union, when they can't agree among themselves as to what kind of a Union they wont, they have steadily battled fortruth and the right, and will intimately triamph. "Fad justicial, si cassum ruat." I believe, however, that the gentleman from Boone, Mr. Fount Riddell, is an exception. Some lovely female has been proposing Union to him, and he has gone and done it—gone clean overboard. It was observable at the last session that his knees had become quite shaky, but now his votes clearly show that he has the william a ctrimities in its worst staze. There is a reason for all this, and it may be in the fact that the honorable gentleman's county is in close proximity to Cincinnati. Divers and sundry shooting implements, in the hands of dangerous Republicans, made their uppearance on that side of the river about the time of the late election, and it is said if a few more cannon had been planted over there, Buone county would not have been done viting for the Union yel. As it is, we part with that gentleman with regret, for he has seen strive in many a well fought battle. Others who have fickered have less reason for doing so thun he.

"Any people my where being inclined, and naving the power, have the right to rise up and shake off the existing Government and ormanew one that suits them better. and shake off the existing Government and form a new one that suits them better.—
This is a most valuable, a most socred right—a right which, we hope and believe, is to liberate the world. Nor is this right contined to cases in which the whole people of an existing government may choose to exercise it. Any portion of such people that can, may revolutionize and make their own of so much of the territory as they inherit. More than this, a majority of any portion of such people may revolutionize, jutting down a minority intermingled with, or near about them, who may oppose their movements. Such minorities was precisely the exec of the Tories at our own Revolution. It is a quality of revolutious precisely the case of the Tories at our own Revelution. It is a quality of revolutions not to go by old lines or old laws, but to break up both, and make new ones."

Such is the linguage of the "Millitary Dietator," whose hordes would mob and hang a northern man who dare inter such a sentiment to-day in this "Sweet Land of Liberty," (of which we sing.)

There are thousands of true and brave men in Indiana to-day, who oppose the "war policy" of Liberty, yet they dare not let that opposition be known.

No doubt, that, from the newspaper reports, it is thought that Indiana is a mit, in favor of "enercion." It is true all the papers and speakers were for their solety, congelled enerc to change their sentiment

Editors Lonisville Control? In a company of gentlemen this morning, the question was asked as to who the author of this correspondence was. Although the matter of it was flatteringly spoken of, yet I was a little chagrined to know that it was attributed to J. Birney Marskall, E.q. WASHINGTON CITY, April 14, 1891.

SIR—Ou the 15th March ult., I left with Judge Crawford, one of the Commissioners of the Confederate States, a note in writing to the effect following:

"I feel entire confidence that Fort Sumter will be evacuated in the next five days. And this measure is felt as imposing great responsibility on the administration.

"I feel entire confidence that no becasure changing the existing status, projudicially to the Southern Confederate States, is at present contemplated.

"I leel an entire confidence that an intendate demand for an answer to the communication of the Commissioners will be productive of evil and not of good. I do not believe that it ought at this time to be pressed."

pressed.' The substance of this statement I com mubicated to you the same evening by letter. Five days claysed, and I called with a telegram from Gen. Beauregard to the effect that Sunter was not evacuated, but that Maj. Anderson was at work making repairs.

The next day, after conversing with you, I communicated to Judge Crawford, in writing, that the failure to evacuate Sumter was not the result of bad faith, but was attributed to converse which is the sum of the result of bad faith, but was ter was not the result of bad faith, but was attributable to causes consistent with the intention to fulfil the engagement, and that as regarded Pickens, I should have notice of any design to after the existing satus there. Mr. Justice Nelson was present at these conversations, three in number, and I submitted to him cach of my written communications to Judge Crawford, and informed Judge C. that they had his (Judge Nelson's) sancton. I gave you, on the 22d of March, a substantial copy of the statement I had made on the 15th.

The 30th of March arrived, and at that time a tologram came from Gov. Pickens, inquiring concerning Col. Lannon, whose visit to Charleston he supposed had a connection with the proposed evacuation of Port Suppler.

nection with the proposed evacuation of Fort Supeter.

I left that with you, and was to have an answer the following Monday (Ist of April.) On the 1st of April I received from you the statement in writing: "(I am satisfied the Government will not undertake to supply Fort Sunter without giving notice to Governor P." The words "I am satisfied" were for me to use as expressive of confidence in the remander of and that there was no design to reinforce Samter.

There was a departure here from the pledges of the previous mouth, but, with the verbal explanation, I did not consider it a matter than to complain of. I simply stated to you that I had that assurance previously.

On the 7th of April I a biressed you a latter on the subject of the clarm that the prejutations by the floverament had created, and asked you if the assurances I had given were well or iff founded. In respect to Sumfer your reply was, "Faith as to Samner, fully kept—wait and seq."—In the morning's paper I road, "An authorized messanger from Pressitent Lincoln informed Gov. Pickens and Goa. Beautregard that provisions will be sent to Fort Sumfer, peaced by or otherwise by force."—This was the 8th of April, at Charleston, the day following your last assurance, and is the evidence of the full faith I was invited to wait for and see. In the same papers I read that intercepted dispatches disclosed the fact that Mr. Fox, who had been allowed to vialt Major Anderson, on the pledge that his purpose was public, on pleyed his capacitumity to devise a plan for supplying the Fort by force, and that this 1 an had been adopted by the Washington Government, and was in process of execution. My recollection of the date of Mr. Fox's visit carries it to a day in March. I man the is a near connection of a member of the Cobinet. My connection with the Commissioners and yourself was superiod duced by reconversation with Justice Nelson. He informed me of your strong disposition he favor of peace, and that you were oppressed with a demand of the Commissioners of the Confederate States for a reply to their first lenge and myself.—I was gratified at the character of the coanset your office entirely at his request and without the knowledge of either of the Commissioners. Your depression was obvious to both Judge Nelson and myself.—I was gratified at the character of the coansets you were desirous of pursuing and much impressed with your observation that a civil war might be pr that a civil war might be prevented by the success of my mediation. You read a letter from Mr. Weed to show how irksome and responsible the withdrawal el troops from Sunter was. A portion of my centumication to Judge Crawford on the 15th of March was founded upon these remarks, and the pledge to evacuate Simiter was less forelible than the words you enqloyed. These words were: Before this letter reaches you (a progosed letter ly me to the terms of my communication with them.

I pledged myself to them to communicate information upon what I considered as the best authority, and they were to confide in the ability of myself, aided by Judge Nelson, to determine upon the credibitity of my informant.

I think no candid man who will read

WARRINGTON NAVY YARD, May 5, 186t. A daring and successful attempt wa made last night to obstruct the channel entrance of the bay, so as either to closu it to the ships of war, or to compet them, if they attempt to come in, to do so in dan gerout proximity to Fort McRae. I betwee the credit of this idea is due to Capt. Lovell, of the Quitman Artillery, of Natchez, formerly one of the most active, efficient and promising officers of the United States Navy. It had been intimated by the officers of the squadron ontside, that a blockade of this port would commence today. In view of this, and of the darger of the ships attempting to come in, whilst our forts and batteries were engaged with Pickens, the plan was adopted of buying some vessels at Pensacola, and sinking them in eas, the plan was adopted of buying some vessels of Pensacola, and sinking them in the channel. To Capt. Lovell this duty was assigned and promptly executed. We believe the same report announced that Mr. PRENTICE and Mr. HARNEY were to have control of the same patronage in Kentucky.

Of course we don't know that the statement in either case was correct. But we have reason to believe that the patronage of the l'ederal Government in this State is in the hands of some persou or persons who is, or are, using it to stifle strengthen the cause of submission to the usprepations of the Administration. We believe it was Cassius M. Clay, who was last winter check by jowl with the "Union party" leaders at Frankfort, as he has since then been with them at Washingington City, who said, in substance, that with the control of the Federal appointments and patronage he could, in one Presidential term, subjugate the South.

It is probable that policy is being carried out in this State. It is possible that some of the most loyal and patriotic of the Submissionists among us are influenced by hopes held out of good things to come and promises of rewards in store for the

We have heard of some facts which we may yet deem proper to give to the public that would at least excite grave fears in the minds of the people that attempts are being made by the Administration on the virtue of party leaders to whom they have been accustomed to look with confidence

For instance: some time ago an able and the State was an applicant for the post office in his city. Among the recommendations he had, was one from one of the most infinential of the leaders of the party with which he was then acting. For some weeks past, however, the applicant, convinced by the aggressive measures of the Administration of its coercive policy and the consequent hopelessness of attempts to preserve the Union, has strongly advocated the co-operation of Kentucky with the other States in a Southern Confederacy. On Saturday last, we believe, the had-been applicant received a letter from the infinential gentleman, above alluded to, informing him that he, (the influential gentleman had learned that the application had been considered and the office given to him, but significantly adding that several bitter secession remarks had been astributed to him and asking if he indersed or approved the sentiments in question. The supposition unquestionably was, that the language would be disavowed and the sentiments repudiated for the office, and the influence of an able man thus secured to the Administration. It was not supposed that any one would have virtue enough to stand by principle and right when to do so involved the loss of official position and emoluments. We have not learned the result; but from our knowledge of the party in question feel confident that for once at

of the State.

We have great respect for those who are presumed to be the servants of the people, who are supposed to represent the will of their constituents, who should on all occasions consult the interests of the State in all their actions; but after all, even great men have their weaknesses; and we protest that we mean no disrespect to any body when we say that we fear that some of our representatives in the Legislature are not better than other men.

Some Kentuckians have already been appointed to office by the present Administration, and we don't know why others should not be made the recipients of Exccutive favors-particularly if they should earn them.

Cassius Char has got a foreign mission GREEN ADAMS is snugly ensconsed at Washington; James Hablan has been put in a position which will call forth all his of its allies, but the time is not far distant conceded talents and great legal ability; when such paragraphs as the following, ALEX. From New York. NEW YORK, May 15.—The Herald's Vashington desputch states from a reliable series that the sacred remains of Washing-on leave been removed from Mt. Vernou by Ion have been removed from Mt. Vernous by Col. Washington, who has recently joined the Confederate army. In the sale of Mt. Vernon. Col. Washington reserved to himself not only the tomb of Washington but also an acre of ground around it. He has bound himself to renovate the tomb.

The President takes the deepert interest in the desperate stringle now going on in Tennessee between the secondinists and Union inch. Measures are in contemplation for the support of the gallant Andrew Jonlagon and friends in their devoted efforts for the Union.

Junison and friends in their devoted efforts for the Union. The Massachusetts Regiments have been purposely selected for opening the way to the Federal troops through Maryland in order to render the luminization of the Secsionists the greater. The triumphant entrance of the Sixth proved a pill of indescribable bitterness to the Bood Tubs. It is altogether impressable that a demonstration against Harper's Ferry will be undertaken from either Perry sylvania or Maryland, without the simultaneous alvance of a strong corps from this city to so the point between Richmond and the Ferry to can off succor from southern Virginia.

A keg of powder has also here discoverd in one of the hareneet rooms of the fatient Office, which had not been used for one time. The powder reemed to have on there for some time, and is nearly certhless. Orders have been issued for a tiet search of all public hendlings, and a nere stringent grand of them.

It is said that great discontent prevails mong the infiltary mob at darper's ferv. A serious said bloody row occurred a ayor two since, in which one or mere of he Kentucky volunteers of Bhanton Danan's equad were killed and others wound. Following this was a threat by Dunan to disband his squad and return home. Indignation is expressed by Virginians had Governor Lete ker by his prechination has prohibited the exportation of all hads of provisions from Virginia for any urjose.

Bove, Ky river;
DEPARTURES. Superior, Chr. Grey Fox, Pitts; Grey Fagle, Henderson

THE RIVER was falling fast yesterday with scant ten feet water in the canal, last evening, by the mark. On the Falls there were seven feet steamboat water, the river having fallen tweive inches at the wharf, and three feet at Portland in the previous 24 hours. The weather continues clear and pleasant, and was coul last evening.

At Cincinnati at noon yesterday it had fallen eixteen inches, and at l'itteburg it ing fact, with seven and a haif feet water in the channel. The Cumberland, a water in the channel.

The Cumberland, at Nashville, yesterday, was at full tide again, with water enough in the channel to float the largest sized man-of-war.

The river trade in all directions is very dull, owing to the unlawful lookade by the Lincoln administration. That act has thrown thousands of hoxtmen out Lincoln administration. That act has thrown thousands of hoatmen out of employment, at a time that they can the least bear it. The great mass of them during the snumer months are compelled to be idle, owing to the suspension of navigation by low water, and the usual cessation of the river trade during that period. Now is the time most valuable to them, as they would, by their next two months' wages, be able to lay no enough to keep them, selves and lamilies through the usual idle snumer months. The edict of the Northern despot, however, has gone forth, the boats are compelled to tie up, and their officers and crews thrown out of employment to starve themselves, in order to let the Government coforce its rightcom. Christian and magnanimous design of starving the South. We are a law abiding. The Trio, that came in from Nashville The Trio, that came in from Nashville, has laid up. She had a consignment of to-bacco for the East, to be forwarded by rail from Evansville. While at that place she was selzed by a company of foreign soldiers, who, however, committed no other ontrage than a forcitle detention of the bost for six or eight hours. The plea for thus stopping a free boat, on a free river, sailing under the United States laws and the Averieum flav. calling under the United States laws and the American flag, the flag that the bowling Abolitionists of the North say has been in-cuited, was, that said soldiers did not want the officers of the Trio to meet and communicate with a boat expected down the river, so as to warm the Capanin that they were blying in wait to size and either they were lying in wait to seize and Jillage her. All these high handed, piratical acts, are done against law abiding people who are sailing under the American flag, yet never a word has been said against its desc-cration by the North.

cration by the North.

The Louisville, hencefor N. Orleans, in caurge of Capt. Holeron, was detained at Evansville, and the army at that point refused to let her proceed with a let of hay she had on board. A U. S. officer, however, at the intercession of the Captain, went on the boat to Caira in charge of the load of hay, to see if an arrangement could not be hay, to see if an arrangement could not be made at that point by which the boat might be permitted to carry said hay to market. We have not heard the result.

Covington, May 8, 1861.

Mosers. Editors: You have doubtless seen much in the Cincinnati papers of the Kentucky regiments forming in this viciuity, and of the famous fellows who compose them. I had my doubts upon the subject, but feeling determined to get some satisfaction, I went on yesterday to Camp Clay in company with a friend, to view for myselt the "noble corps." It made me profanc! I am not given to profanity, but when the State of my nativity is vilely libelled and shame is thrown upon her, I confess the curses spring unbidden, and the sin does not go down inpoin my wrath. Such a set of immitigated scap-graces I never witnessed as were formed in rank and file at Camp Clay. I doubted whether there were lifty kentnekkins in the whole crowd that they and there whether there were lifty Kentuckians in the whole crowd that then and there walked "two and two, Newgate tashion;" or if they be Kentuckians, they are certainly those who have "left their country for their country's good." My impression is, and it is confirmed by those I have talked with, that the great body of the recruits are river hands, collectionee longers, vagabands, and thieves. You remember a madman met Falstall's corps and told him he had unloaded all the gibbets and pressed the dead bodies.

A madman would tell Col. Guthrie that he had opened prison doors and pressed the inmates. "The villains march wide betwixt the legs as if they had gives or," he inmates. "The villains a petwixt the legs as if they had Wheeling, May 15.—The Convention usembled at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Carlisle's resolutions being the order, Mr. Carlisle moved an amendment by adding that the Convention Committee be instructed to submit the ordinance suggested in his resolution of last night to the people on the 23d of May.

Mr. Willey, of Montgomery county, continued his remarks from yesterday, opposing the organization of a Provisional Government.

Mr. Paulsley spoke at length, favoring Mr. Patistey spoke at length, favoring a Provisional Government over the whole State. There was no longer a State Government; the Governor and authorities laid usurped power; we are now in a state of anarchy; we have the precedent of California to act upon in this matter.

Mr. Calisle accounted the proposition fornia to act upon in this matter.

Mr. Carlisic accepted the proposition.—
A motion was made to go into secret session but was withdrawn. Mr. Pierpont, of Marion, made a lengthy speech in opposition to the resolution, saying if the Richmond Convention had acted unconstitutionally this Convention should not follow their example.
